

Redline, Charles S.

Advances

Charles S. Redline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude S. Redline, 819 Tombler Street, is home on a short leave and brought the news with him of his recent promotion to Lieutenant (jg.). This was a "spot" promotion given to only two ensigns on the ship for meritorious work done while on sea duty on the Atlantic, the Mediterranean area, and the invasions of Sicily and Italy. Lieut. Redline was graduated from the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy in 1940 and before entering the service was employed by the Dennis Drug Company. He received his commission as Ensign from Notre Dame, March, 1943. He is visiting his parents and wife, the former Miss Marion Muhr, 1324 Broadway.

February 21, 1944