

Crafton, Sigmond

VETERAN STANDING GUARD.

NOV 25 1942

A veteran of World War I is among the members of the Pennsylvania Reserve Defense Corps now doing guard duty at local defense industry plants, replacing U. S. Military Police units. He is Pfc. Sigmond Crafton, an employe of the Bethlehem Foundry and Machine Company since 1919.

Crafton, who lives at 704 Wyandotte Street, joined the U. S. Army on November 24, 1917, and was with the 310th Machine Gun Company, 79th Division. He observed the 25th anniversary of his enlistment while on duty Tuesday night on East Second Street.

November 25, 1942