

Lang, Jr., Albert W.

BROTHERS TO LEAVE 1942
AP. 15 FOR ARMED SERVICE

Corporal Albert W. Lang, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lang, 1328 West Union Boulevard, who has been in the service of Uncle Sam for over a year, will leave on Friday for Santa Anna, Cal., to enter training as an aviation cadet. He is now spending a week's furlough in Bethlehem with his wife, the former Miss Esther Farquhar, at her home, 920 West Broad Street.

Corporal Lang's brother, Jerome R. Lang, 21, will also leave on Friday to serve Uncle Sam. He will report to the Naval Reserve headquarters in Philadelphia and will leave from there for active duty. He will enter the Navy with the rank of yeoman, third class.

Both are graduates of Liberty High School. Albert was employed by the Lehigh Advertising Company and Jerome, who is also a graduate of Bethlehem Business College, by the Laros Textile Company.
