MEN'S COLLEGE TRIO CALLED TO SERVICE

FEB 4 1943

Two Sophomores and Junior in Enlisted Army Reserves Re- port to Air Corps.

Three undergraduates at Moravian College enrolled in the U. S. Army Enlisted Reserves have been called to duty.

James A. Ottinger, a sophomore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ottinger, 65 Warren Street, departed today for Miami Beach, Fla., to begin training with the Army Air Corps. He is a graduate of Fountain Hill High School and held the Moravian College scholarship from that school. His brother, Samuel Ottinger, who was a senior at Muhlenberg College, was called up for duty last July and is stationed with the Air Corps at Boca Raton, Fla.

H. Guy Smith, a junior at Moravian, 1050 Seneca Street, will report

Monday to Philadelphia for assignment to the Air Corps Reception Center at Nashville, Tenn. Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Smith, he was a member of Sigma Theta Pi fraternity at the college.

Donald R. Bramwell, a sophomore, 614 Diehl Avenue, was also ordered to report to the Air Corps.

Dr. F. P. Stocker, president of the board of trustees of the college, Dr. W. Vivian Moses, dean of the seminary, and Dr. Roy D. Hassler, dean of the college, met with the pre-theological students today to discuss points of information as to their status under Selective Service and report on activities of the Council of Churches of Christ In America and other theological seminaries.
