

Kosick, Julius

Hellertown R. D. 1
Soldier Wounded
On French Front

Word was received this morning by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kosick of Hellertown R. D. 1, that their son, Pfc. Julius Kosick, was seriously wounded in action somewhere in France July 12. No details were contained in the War Department telegram.

Pfc. Kosick, a graduate of Springtown High, was formerly a moulder in the Bethlehem Steel Company. He was inducted two years ago and at the completion of training at Camp Atterbury, Ind., he was shipped overseas in April of this year.
