

Moser, Paul

LIEUT. MOSER TO TAKE TEST FOR PROMOTION

JAN 20 1943

Lieut. Paul Moser, now stationed in California, stopped off in Freemansburg while enroute to South Carolina, to visit his sister, Mrs. Christopher Hannon, and her husband, Justice of the Peace Hannon, and friends in the borough and in this city. In the South he will take an examination for promotion to a captaincy.

Mrs. Hannon also has a nephew who is a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Navy. He is Raymond Wassenhaley, formerly of this city.
