Nazareth Soldier
Gets Unit Badge
In Hospital Rites NOV 6 1945

The Patient's Recreation Hall, Newton Baker General Hospital in Virginia, was the scene of the weekly award ceremony November 1, at which time the Distinguished Unit Badge was awarded Pfc. Roy B. Werkheiser, whose wife, the former Miss Irene Granda, and daughter, Doris Elaine, live at 121 Cedar Street, Nazareth.

During the same ceremonies, Distinguished Flying Cross and several Bronze Star awards were presented to other patients by Colonel David H. Poer, Chief of Surgical Service.
