

Nonnemacher, Preston S.

Wins Award

SEP 4 1945

"For distinguishing himself by excellent service during patrol of his ship in enemy waters," Preston S. Nonnemacher, 20, Torpedoman's Mate 2/C, has been awarded a Letter of Commendation by Vice Admiral T. C. Kinkaid, USN, Commander of the 7th Fleet. The award was presented by Commodore G. Morgan, June 8, at a submarine base in the Pacific. His wife, Lila Mary Belle and their daughter, Linda Oriette, 10 months, live on River Road, Bethlehem.

The Letter of Commendation reads in part: "His efficient operation and equipment during an attack on two enemy warships aided greatly in the sinking of one vessel and probable damage to another."
