

Zarinsky, John S.!

Returns To Camp

Sergeant John S. Zarinsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Zarinsky, 1803 Canal Street, Northampton, has returned to Yakima Valley, Washington, after spending a brief furlough at home. Sergeant Zarinsky is attached to a tank destroyer battalion, receiving his basic training at Camp Cooke, Cal., later being transferred to Camp Hood, Tex.; Camp Adair, Ore., and at present is stationed in the State of Washington. Active in baseball and bowling leagues prior to his induction, he was then employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. While on furlough he saw his brother, Ensign Walter Zarinsky, who was home also on short leave from his station at Lakehurst, N. J.
