

Evans, Cary G.

Ex-Lehigh Track
Star Reports For Duty With Navy

NEW ORLEANS—Ensign Cary G. Evans, USNR, Lehigh track captain in 1939 and member of Phi Delta Theta, has reported for duty at the Naval Armed Guard Center in New Orleans, where he is awaiting orders to take charge of the naval gun crew on a merchant vessel. He will be charged with the defense of the ship in case of attack.

Since going to active duty in the Naval Reserve, Ensign Evans has been under instruction at Cornell, Boston and at the advanced gunnery school in Gulfport, Mississippi, where he trained enlisted men in the science of handling naval ordnance.

Before entering the service last April Ensign Evans was a supervisor in the production department of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

The officer's wife, Mrs. Elizabeth McCall Evans, will reside in their home at 464 North New Street, Bethlehem, during his absence.
