

Scheetz, Henry

Henry Scheetz Has Hobby, Pets, In Hawaii

Henry Scheetz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scheetz, 737 Laufer Avenue, now wears the chevrons of a corporal, being promoted a short time ago. He is stationed "somewhere in Hawaii" assigned to one of the Army's M. P. units.

Besides being a good soldier, he has a hobby, and according to letters received by his parents, he is making a success of it. Instead of spending leisure time along the beaches of the Pacific Isle, he devotes his time to a vegetable patch.

Some time ago in a letter to his parents he told them that he had a pet dog. A short time later, his possessions included a mule, and more recently he has added a mountain goat to his collection.

On the vegetable patch he grows such things as watermelons and a varied assortment of vegetables. His success as a pineapple grower is an unknown quantity. He has been stationed in Hawaii for the past eight months.

He was inducted into the armed forces on April 22, 1942, and after receiving his basic training at Fort George Meade, Md., he was transferred to army camps in Georgia and Texas.

He graduated from Broughal Junior High School, attended Bethlehem Technical High School, and before his induction he was an employe of the Lehigh News Agency.

August 2, 1943