The Bethlehem Gadfly coronavirus, Local Color April 30, 2020

 The Gadfly invites “local color” photos of this sort

Gadfly:

My sister Nancy Perusso, her husband Mike and daughter Emily dress up a mannequin that belonged to my mother for many years. Mom bought it from Orrs when it went out of business. “Sophia,” as she is named, gets dressed up for many special occasions and for the past 3 weeks, she’s been donning nurse gear to support our front-line crew.
