

Kohl, Royal L

NICE PROMOTION

Home on furlough from two years with the U. S. Army Signal Corps in Alaska with a nice promotion to his credit is Corp. Royal L. Kohl, Jr., (above), 22-year-old soldier son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Kohl, Sr., 440 Cherokee st. His last tour of duty took him to the Aleutian Islands,

CORP. ROYAL L. KOHL

from which he was sent to the States for this, his first visit since going to Alaska two years ago. Corp. Kohl is serving his second three-year enlistment, having signed up again last February 10. He took his basic training at Ft. Monmouth, N. J., and was sent thence to Ft. Lewis, Washington. At Ft. Lewis he was assigned to duty in Alaska. He will leave next Friday to return to Washington for re-assignment. A brother, Pvt. Dallas Kohl, 21, is now at Vancouver Barracks, Washington, and another brother, Boyd R., 18, expects to leave with the next contingent of selectees for New Cumberland induction center.

Apr. 5 1943