

Fatzinger, William
Charles

Soldier Greet Brother:
How About A Match?

"Say, Bud, how about a match?" That's how Staff Sergeant William Fatzinger greeted his brother, Pfc. Charles Fatzinger, whom he hadn't seen in over four years, at the Union Station this week.

The sons of Mrs. Mary A. Fatzinger, Bath, they will spend a short furlough before returning to their respective camps at Richmond, Va., and California.

December 21, 1944