

Ellis, John C.

Lt. John C. Ellis
On Berlin Flight

MAR 28 1945

First Lieutenant John C. Ellis, 1220 Prospect Avenue, who is a pilot on a B-24 Liberator, heavy bomber, recently flew to Berlin on his 20th mission. This was the 200 mission the 458th Bombardment Group has accomplished since it became operational one year ago.

Lieut. Ellis has been awarded the Air Medal and three Oak Leaf Clusters. Col. James H. Isbell is commanding officer of his group, and has the distinction of being the first group commander to direct any group of the Eighth Air Force throughout its 200 missions.

March 28, 1945