

Ettwein, Robert J.

Advanced in Rating

When the Navy biscuits are hard enough to use as ammunition, the gobs can now take their grouching to this cheery looking chap. He is Robert J. Ettwein, recently promoted in rating to Ship's Cook third class, a third class petty officer rating. Right now he's on mine sweeper duty in the Atlantic area. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ettwein, 1028 Main Street, and has been in the Navy since August 3, 1943. He took his boot training at Sampson, N. Y., and was sent to Georgia. There he became a fireman third class. He got his present rating in Florida.
