

Hittinger, William C.

Miss Herman To Be Bride of Pvt. Hittinger

FEB 21 1944

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Herman, of 1014 West Union Boulevard, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Elaine Herman, to Pvt. William C. Hittinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hittinger, of 433 East Laurel Street.

Miss Herman is a graduate of Liberty High School and attended business school. She is active in Girl Scouting and is leader of Troop 13. At the present time, she is employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

Pvt. Hittinger, also an alumnus of Liberty High School, was graduated with honors yesterday from Lehigh University. An outstanding advanced ROTC student at the local university, he was activated last June and returned by the army to Lehigh to complete his civilian studies. He majored in metallurgical engineering and was graduated with honors. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta social fraternity.

Now on furlough, Pvt. Hittinger will leave early in March for Aberdeen, Md., to enter the Ordnance Officers Candidate School. In addition to his high scholastic and army rating, he also played quarterback both at Bethlehem High and on the Lehigh football squad.
