Lieut. John J. Duffy
Gets Silver Bar
In California

SEP 4 1944
WILMINGTON, Calif.—Lt. John J. Duffy, assistant in the Training Branch of the Los Angeles Port of Embarkation, has just been promoted from second to first lieutenant.

Son of A. J. Duffy of 628 North Washington Street, Scranton, Lt. Duffy also is the husband of the former Miss Elizabeth Hart, daughter of E. J. Hart, Northampton County, court reporter at Easton, for the Bethlehem Globe-Times.

Before coming to LAPE last April, Lt. Duffy served for a short time at the New Orleans Port of Embarkation and prior to that was an instructor in Army Student Training Program classes at Michigan State College. He served also as an enlisted man in the Coast Artillery at Camp Davis, N. C., and as an officer with an anti-aircraft unit at Seattle.

Graduate of Holy Cross College, Lt. Duffy was an auditor with the Audit Bureau of Circulation before entering Army service. He now resides, with Mrs. Duffy, at 161 East Twelfth Street, Long Beach, Calif.
