

King, Charles H. Jr.

Cpl. Charles H. King Jr.,
21 Years Old Today

Cpl. Charles H. King Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, 1937 Brookside Drive, celebrated his 21st birthday anniversary today "somewhere in the Pacific."

Cpl. King was attending Liberty High School when he enlisted in the Marine Corps February, 1943. After completing his boot training at Parris Island, he was sent to Newport, R. I., and to Cherry Point, N. C., where he attended school for over a year and a half. Cpl. King was then transferred to Bogh Field, N. C., where he was appointed assistant athletic coach, and was sent overseas to the Pacific theater. The former City League basketball player is guarding Jap prisoners at present, according to the latest word received by his parents.

Sep. 8, 1945