

Romanick, Alex

Machinist's Mate

FEB 26 1944

Alex Romanick is now a M. M. 3-C of the Seabees. He entered the service August 30, 1943, and observed his 22nd birthday somewhere in the Aleutian Islands, February 21. His brother, Pfc. John Romanick, of the Air Corps, entered the service on August 3, 1942, and is now somewhere in England. Alex and John are the sons of Mrs. Olga Romanick of Miller Heights and before entering the service were employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

February 26 1944