

Barackskay, J. L.

EARNs PROMOTION

J. L. Barackskay, seaman first-class, who recently spent a weekend at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Barackskay of 1736 East Third Street, has been promoted to torpedo man third-class. He just returned from a two and half months trip in the European war theatre.

He spent his 25th birthday, which was April 9, somewhere in Africa. He enlisted in the U. S. Navy November 17, 1941 and rose rapidly to his present rating.

At a party for him during his visit home a birthday cake decorated in red, white and blue, was presented to him. Only the family were present including his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hoffer and family, Richard and Jeanne.
