

Horvath, Julius

Missing In Action

An official telegram received by Mr. and Mrs. John Horvath, 819 Wood Street, informed them that their son, S 2-C Julius Horvath, is missing in action. S 2-C Horvath entered the service September 24, 1942, and received his boot training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in Illinois. He attended Bethlehem High School and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He has served overseas for the past three months and recently in the Pacific theater.
