

Tough, George

COUNTY LADS TRAINING AT WACO FLYING SCHOOL

Waco, Texas, Army Flying School, March 5 (Special to the Globe-Times)—George Tough, of 937 George Street, Pen Argyl, is a student of basic flying training at the Waco Army Flying School after completing primary training at Hicks Field, Fort Worth, Texas.

In civilian life he was a hotel clerk. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Tough.

Another arrival at Waco is Aviation Cadet Edward P. Dietrich, of 512 Wilkes-Barre Street, Easton, who is among the members of the class of aviation cadets recently assigned to the Flying School for basic flying training.

Before receiving his appointment for air crew training, Cadet Dietrich served nearly a year with the ground forces, rising to the rank of corporal. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Dietrich.

Mar. 5, 1943