

Horvath, William S.

Awarded Air Medal, Gold Star

(Official U. S. Navy Photograph)

William S. Horvath, 24, aviation machinist's mate (flight engineer), first class, USN (right), of 305 W. 8th St., Bethlehem, shown being awarded the Air Medal and Gold Star in lieu of a second Air Medal by his commanding officer at the Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Camp Kearney, San Diego, Calif. Horvath, who participated in the campaigns at Iwo Jima and Leyte, won the awards for 10 combat flights in the Pacific during these operations.

March 7, 1946