

Case, James P.

Sgt. James P. Case
Home on Furlough
After ETO Service

Sgt. James P. Case, former Liberty High School football star, is spending a 30-day furlough at his home after serving in the ETO for a year. While overseas Sgt. Case earned three battle stars for the Ardennes, Rhineland and Central European campaigns, and an Arrowhead for an airborne invasion. He also wears the Combat Infantry Badge.

SEP 20 1945
While in combat, Case served with the 17th Airborne Division and was in the first glider to land across the Rhine. He has since been transferred to the 13th Airborne Division and after completing his furlough will report to Camp Mackall, N. C., for reassignment.

Sgt. Case is married to the former Georgine Geary, 434 East Garrison Street. They have a son, James Jr.

September 20, 1945