

Ravier Jr., Henry

VETERAN NEARS BIRTHDAY

Pfc. Henry Ravier, Jr., or "Shorty" Ravier as he is known, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ravier, Sr., of Bethlehem R. D. 4, will celebrate his 22nd birthday May 17. Pvt. Ravier has been in the service of Uncle Sam for 3½ years, having served with the National Guards, Battery C, 213th Coast Artillery, (A. A.), Bethlehem.

He received his basic training for overseas at Camp Pendleton, Virginia Beach, and Camp Stewart, Georgia, and various other camps. He was sent to Africa last November and is still there. A letter received by his parents states he and several local buddies are well, happy and enjoying their experiences.
