

Casella, Frank

ARMY SWEARS IN 33

Citizens MEN—ENLISTMENTS UP

Thirty-three Lehigh Valley men were sworn in at the Allentown induction station, it was announced last night and announcement made that the enlistments at the Allentown-Bethlehem-Easton area are increasing.

Among those inducted were Frank P. Casella, Samuel B. Becker and Donald L. Bullock, all of Easton; John H. Cornelius, Jr., of Freemansburg; Patrick E. Cerrone, of Nazareth; George F. Zegalla, of Wind Gap; George B. Moore, of Bangor; and Millard S. Frankensfield, of Durham.

Others in the group were the following from Bethlehem: Raymond W. Grube, Emery Peslen Jr., Leidy E. Drauch, Stephen Krupa, Granville E. Dietz, Leonard E. Rice Sr.; and the following from Allentown: William F. Zeitner, Edward C. Oberdoster, Robert W. DeLong, George F. Fenner, Eugene D. Ritter, Marlowe S. Johnson, Dennis E. McHugh Jr., Edwin Flohr, and Henry L. Markoski, and Frederick E. Schlicher, Pennsburg.

Oct. 9, 1942