Brothers in Navy Meet

Ralph and Stephen Selvaggio, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Selvaggio of 602 Ontario Street, had a happy reunion a short time ago, "somewhere in Hawaii," according to information received by their parents. Both are members of Uncle Sam's Navy and each has the rank of Seaman First Class. Stephen, 20 years of age, has been doing his bit in the C-B's, while his brother, Ralph, 22, is assigned to one of the warships. Some time ago when his ship docked at the South Pacific port, Ralph, learning that his brother was located in that vicinity, sought and found him, the first time brother greeted brother in 14 months. Both are graduates of Bethlehem Technical High School. Before being inducted, Ralph was an employee of the Bethlehem Steel Company. Stephen, a member of the Class of '43, was inducted shortly after graduation.
