

Galbraith, Donald

RECEIVES STRIPE

Donald Galbraith, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Galbraith, 44 East Spruce Street, has been promoted to Private First Class. He entered the Marine Corps in March, 1944, received his basic training at Parris Island, S. C., and went on to New River, N. C., for advanced training. Pfc. Galbraith now spending a furlough with his wife, the former Mabel LaFarr, and their son, Donald, will return to his base in North Carolina shortly.

Before entering the Marine Corps, he attended Liberty High School and was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company.

October 12, 1944