

King Jr., Charles

Charles King, Jr., Feted At Farewell Party By Parents

Mr. and Mrs. Charles King, 1937 Brookside dr., Bethlehem, gave a farewell party for their son, Charles King, Jr., recently in their home. Charles left Thursday morning for basic training in the Marine Corps at Parris Island, S. C., as an enlistee.

The guest received many gifts useful to a serviceman, including a large sum of money. The young man was very popular in sports circles. He was the highest scorer during the past league season for the Nicks' basketball team. As a Bethlehem Technical High School student, he was a member of Bethlehem High's soccer team. He was given a certificate and a lettered sweater for his efforts in this sport.

Music for the party was played by Miss Elizabeth Parry, Lehighton, accordion player.

Guests were the Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Parry and their daughter, Elizabeth, Lehighton; Mrs. Elizabeth Grigg and Edward Posh, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Parry and daughter, Beverly; Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Parry and son, Richard, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ward and children, Joanne, Janet, Eugene and Donald, Allentown, and Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Mutter and children, Judith and Forrest; Miss Bessie Pursell, James Parry, Louis Molnar, Eugene Fraley, Mrs. Naomi Caraghan and daughter, Patricia, Harrison, Charles and Robert King, Mr. and Mrs. King and the guest of honor.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. King and Mrs. Jackson.

APR 10 1943

April 10, 1943