The bridesmaids were Mrs. Frank Rosato, Mrs. Elwood Bush, Mrs. Sherwood Holland and Miss Marion Foulkes. Attired in a white satin gown with a full length train and short shoulder veil, the bride carried a bouquet of orchids and white sweet peas. Her maid of honor, Miss Wise, wore a gown of pink net and carried matching flowers, while the four bridesmaids were attired in pale green gowns and carried matching bouquets.

Sgt. Holland is also a graduate of the Bangor High School, class of 1939, and was inducted into the United States Army in July, 1942.

Following a reception for members of the immediate family at the home of Mrs. Laura E. Williams and Miss Margaret H. Roberts on East High Street, Bangor, aunts of the bride, the couple left for a short wedding trip to New Lork City.
