

Lobb, William L.

MISS DORIS MUSSELMAN
MARRIED ON SATURDAY
OCT 26 1942

Becomes Bride of Corp. W. L. Lobb in Richmond, Va., Church.

The marriage of Miss Doris Virginia Musselman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren C. Musselman, 341 Liberty Street, and Corp. William Lucas Lobb, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Lobb, of Pen Argyl, were married Saturday at 9 p. m. in the Baptist Church, Richmond, Va. A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Slack, that city.

The bride, attended by Miss Irene Horvath, this city, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white satin, with fingertip tulle veil and carried a prayer book with shower of lilies of the valley. Her attendant wore pale net, with a cap and shoulder-length veil of matching tulle, and carried a bouquet of single yellow chrysanthemums.

Mr. Slack was the bridegroom's best man. Members of both families were in attendance.

The bride is a graduate of Bethlehem High School and Bethlehem Business College and is employed in the office of the Bethlehem Steel Company. The bridegroom is a graduate of Pen Argyl High School and Moravian College for Men. He was a member of the faculty and assistant football coach at Emmaus High School before entering the United States Army. He is stationed at Camp Lee, Va.
