

Rothrock, Floyd H.

Navy Promotion

Mrs. Floyd H. Rothrock received word of the promotion of her husband, Floyd H. Rothrock, to Petty Officer 3-C, "somewhere in the South Pacific." Petty Officer Rothrock completed boot training at Camp Perry, Va., after his induction in April, 1944. He has been overseas since July of the same year and has taken part in the invasions of Leyte, Palau, and Lingayen. He is a former employe of the Modern Throwing Company Silk Mills. His son, daughter and wife, the former, Esther E. Konold, reside at Bethlehem R. D. 4.
