Motorcycle Officer Will "Sign Off"
From Police October 10.

Motorcycle Officer Charles Rahmer, of the Bethlehem police department, will "sign off" on Saturday, October 10, as a member of the police department. He will be marked absent for the duration. Next week he will report to the Philadelphia Naval District, being assigned Specialist S.

Rahmer is the second member of the department to enter Uncle Sam's naval forces within a short time, the other being John Pulley, at present attending a naval school at Norfolk, Va.

Officer Rahmer joined the police force on January 26, 1925, and during his service was a footman, member of the cruiser car crew and motorcycle squad.
