

Vlay, Stephen

Local Soldier Wounded
In Action In Africa

Pfc. Stephen Vlay, U. S. Army, 743 Evans Street, was among the American soldiers wounded in action in North Africa, according to information by friends in this city.

He enlisted in the army about two years ago, and at that time gave the name of his brother, John Vlay, same address, as the nearest of kin. The latter is presently serving Uncle Sam.

Stephen is a member of St. John's Windish Lutheran Church, and before he enlisted was an employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

June 11, 1943