

Moffitt, Carmel

FAREWELL PARTY.

A farewell party was given Carmel Moffitt, 634 Third Avenue, employed as a clerk in the billing department of the local plant of the Bethlehem Steel Company who will leave Monday as an enlisted man for training at an aviation technical school. The affair took place Friday evening in the Beethoven Maennerchor club house.

About 50 of his fellow employes attended the party where Michael Flanagan was toastmaster. The guest of honor was presented with a purse by Mr. Flanagan in behalf of the guests at the event.

Mr. Moffitt was also presented with a tobacco kit by John O. Griffiths, president of the Bethlehem Tobacco Club, for that organization.
