

Frack, Clarence

Becomes Technical Sergeant

Clarence Frack, of Allentown, who formerly played in the Fountain Hill American Legion Band, and who is stationed with the U. S. Army Air Corps at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, Mo., attended the rehearsal of the Legion Band on Monday evening, while home on a 10-day furlough.

He has passed the examination for a technical sergeant and is an airplane mechanic. He is a son of Edgar Frack, 535 Chester Street, Allentown. He left for St. Louis on Tuesday evening. MAR 5 1943

March 5, 1943