

Henzel Martin

WASSER-HENZEL

Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Wasser, 547 East Fourth Street, Northampton, announce the marriage of their daughter, Grace M. Wasser, to Private Martin Henzel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henzel, Sr., 1359 Main Street, Northampton.

The ceremony took place on Sunday, December 26 at 4 p. m., at the parsonage of Zion's Evangelical Lutheran Church, of which the bride is a member, with the pastor, Rev. Arthur S. Deibert officiating.

The bride wore a powder blue dress with corsage of gardenias, while her attendant, Mrs. Dail Eisenhard, wore a rose dress. She also had a gardenia corsage. John Henzel, Jr., was best man for his brother.

The bride, who was graduated from Northampton High School in 1942, is employed in the laboratory of the Lawrence Portland Cement Company.

JAN 3 1944

Private Henzel, who attended Northampton High School, is a member of Holy Trinity Slovak Lutheran Church. He entered Army service about two and one-half years ago.

A reception took place at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony. The bride is residing at the home of her parents. Her husband returned to duty in a Kansas camp.

January 3, 1944