

Rosamalia, Amos L.

Seaman Promoted

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. P. Rosamalia, 625 Wyandotte Street, that their son, Amos L. Rosamalia, now serving with the 112th Naval Construction Battalion, has been promoted to Seaman First Class. Seaman Rosamalia, who has been in action in the Mariana's, sent his father an Easter present of a Japanese rifle and bayonet taken from a Jap in the Mariana campaign. His mother received a corsage. An enlistee, he entered the service on July 1, 1943, received his boot training at Camp Peary, Virginia. He was then sent to Quoddy Village, Maine, and later sent to Port Hueneme, California, from which point he was shipped to Hawaii. He has been serving overseas for fourteen months.
